

Maersk Tankers to move into new Copenhagen office in 2019

2 October 2018

Maersk Tankers will move its Copenhagen office from Nicolai Eigtveds Gade to Holmbladsgade next year. All 160 employees will transfer to the new address.

The new office reflects Maersk Tankers' ambition to create a market-leading digital tanker company.

"The office will support our ambition of becoming a digital tanker company that provides competitive services to customers and partners through our algorithmic-based trading, scale and global presence," says Christian M. Ingerslev, Chief Executive Officer, Maersk Tankers. "A modern, digital and cost-efficient setting will promote this at the same time as it will offer our employees an environment that promotes collaboration, engagement and well-being."

The new office, Huset EDISON, will house the company's 160 employees on 3,076 square meters in a larger office building at a central location.

"We are looking forward to moving to a developing part of Copenhagen, whose cutting-edge character suits our company," says Ingerslev. "While Nicolai Eigtveds Gade has served us well, it is time for us to move to a new and modern environment, which reflects our ambition."

Maersk Tankers has been located in rented offices at Nicolai Eigtveds Gade since 2009. The plan is to move to the new office by 1 September 2019 at the latest.

The office at Holmbladsgade is currently being prepared for Maersk Tankers by Top Danmark, the owner and developer of the building.
